KempelenBox

Introduction

LiveSupport is personnel intensive. A Kempelen Box provides an alternative. It is "like a room full of experts, who are able to tell visitors where to find useful sources of information. Instead of being there in person, the experts are represented by software agents."

Status/RoadMap

- Where are we?

Re: DogFood If a newbie is savvy enough to connect to IRC Willow'Connecting To IRC and another member of the TikiCommunity is available and willing to help, the newbie may get her or his questions answered.

Sometimes the expert will simply poll TikiBot in a certain way to reference a particular page in TikiDocumentation and direct the inquirer to that information or, perhaps, to one of our TikiMovies. Such responses repeated over and over again are captured in IRC logs. Information in these logs could form the basis for an ExpertSystem.
