A few words about myself :

- pc tech support guy for over 12 years
- most interested in : cooperation and communication on the web
- blown away by Wiki, I found Tiki on Sourceforge
- features that interest me most are wiki and chat

I think that:

- when Tiki includes an excellent chat, people will beat a path to our door.
- Tiki can be the ideal site-in-a-box for communities, with its rich feature-set
