

WikiPageDiscussion

When activated this feature creates a 'discuss' button on every page that takes users to a thread in the forums for that particular page. This allows users to create an open discourse about pages using the public forums, rather than on the difficult to see and find comments at the bottom of pages.