

parallel multilingual

A parallel multilingual website is a website that will deal with same subject in the various languages, and will be able to call a consistent translators' workforce.

The typical case is a commercial company selling the same product in different countries.

It is to be opposed to a Loosemultilingual website, typically a non-profit.