Current issues:

- what to include in the article listing

Tiki News listing syntax

```
{ARTICLES(max=>5,topicId=>!5)}{ARTICLES}
```

- tab switching reloads the page
- can not center H1, the syntax does not work

```
{CENTER()}!TEXT{CENTER}
```

Example:

```
!TEXT
◦ Need to use a DIV:
!{DIV(align="center")}TEXT{DIV}

Welcome to Tiki!

Tiki is a web-based, multilingual, wiki and content management system (CMS) tightly integrated with a comprehensive set of groupware features. It is a free and open source software created by a large, international development team.

Tiki includes hundreds of well integrated features. In most situations, Tiki “does it all”, you do not need to find other software to fill in a missing piece.

Because of this, Tiki helps you to easily create all types of collaborative applications:

- ✘ websites
- ✘ portals
- ✘ knowledge bases
- ✘ intranets
- ✘ extranets

Rick wrote:

These words (websites, portals, knowledge bases, etc.) have very low meaning comprehension and very low SEO values. In the old version of INFO, we used high quality words (Wikipedia, Yahoo, FLickr, etc.

Tiki’s web-based, graphical interface makes it easy to configure the features you need. Tiki’s enormous set of features allows you to have the confidence that it will adapt well to all your requirements, now and in the future.

Whatever you are looking for, chances are Tiki has it. Your search for the most feature-complete CMS is over.

TikiWiki is Free and Open Source software (LGPL 2.1 (external link)). You do not have to pay anything to anyone to use TikiWiki. However, you may choose to get hired help for setup, hosting, training, etc.

These consultants are active contributors to the TikiWiki community. By hiring them, you are permitting them to spend more time to contribute to TikiWiki.

When you do hire people (they don't have to be on this list!), make sure to insist the fixes and enhancements are re-contributed back. This is good for you so you don't end up with a forked-version which will be difficult/expensive to maintain. It's good for the whole community as it accelerates Tiki's progress.

Coming Soon: TikiFest Virtual 2021

Author: Gary Cunningham-Lee - Published 22 May 2021 17:06 GMT-0000

TikiFest Virtual 2021 will be held from June 2 to June 5, and everyone is invited to get together online at tiki.org/live for presentations and discussions.

The open source Tiki Wiki CMS Groupware provides tools for remote collaboration integrated with a wiki, calendar, and database features, among others, so we will be using these in-house tools for the virtual Tikifest.

The Covid-19 pandemic is still impacting travel and other activities around the world. Unfortunately, then, it isn't possible yet to hold a normal in-person TikiFest, to meet and work together in one place for a few days. But with Tiki providing the tools for remote collaboration, we're doing the next-best thing: we're having another virtual TikiFest, following the first one held a year ago.

During the TikiFest, some time slots might have parallel tracks for developers and users (advanced or new) but in any case there will be something for everyone, no matter whether you are a Tiki veteran or are new to Tiki and want to discover how we do things the Tiki way.

Everyone is invited to take part in the Tiki community life and the Tiki project.

Tiki 15 reaches end of service life - what are your options?

Author: Marc Laporte - Published 13 May 2021 17:34 GMT-0000

 Tiki 15 LTS, first released in April 2016, has reached the end of its service life, so is no longer being maintained by the Tiki Community or receiving security fixes or feature updates. Tiki 15 users are urged to upgrade their site to the latest Tiki Long Term Support version. Organizations that for some reason choose to continue using Tiki 15 can seek professional enterprise support from a Tiki consultant.
